

One-Day FDP on Research Proposal Writing Successfully organized at ICFAI University, Raipur

The ICFAI University, Raipur, successfully organized a One-Day Faculty Development Program (FDP) on “Essential Components and Best Practices in Research Proposal Writing for Grants” on 2nd April 2026. The program was conducted under the aegis of the Department of Innovation and Incubation Division (IID), under the able leadership of Dr. Nagaiah Kummari

The event was graced by the Honorable Vice-Chancellor, Prof.( Dr.) Shiv Dayal Pandey, whose inspiring address highlighted the critical importance of collaborative and multidisciplinary research in fostering both individual academic growth and institutional excellence.

The FDP featured an enriching session by the distinguished resource person, Prof. Dr. Naresh Kumar Nagwani from the Department of Computer Science and Engineering at the National Institute of Technology Raipur. He delivered a comprehensive and insightful lecture on best practices in research proposal writing. His session effectively guided participants through the essential do’s and don’ts of crafting impactful grant proposals, while also emphasizing key elements that funding agencies prioritize.

A particularly valuable aspect of his session was the discussion on revising and strengthening previously rejected proposals, providing participants with practical strategies to improve their chances of securing research grants. The session was widely appreciated for its clarity, relevance, and actionable insights.

The program served as an enriching platform for faculty members to deepen their understanding of research funding mechanisms and proposal development. At the conclusion of the FDP, all participants were felicitated with certificates in recognition of their active participation and commitment to professional development.

Participants expressed sincere appreciation for the program, noting that the knowledge and skills gained would be instrumental in enhancing their future research endeavors and grant submissions.

This FDP marks yet another significant step by The ICFAI University, Raipur toward strengthening a robust research culture and empowering its academic community to contribute meaningfully to the advancement of knowledge.
