Community Tour for B.Ed. Students -January 06, 2019

Students of B.Ed. visited to nearby village and did some social work for the villagers. They motivated them for maintaining cleanliness and inform them about the various government schemes for the betterment of women, child and general people. All members of faculty of education along with registrar of the University participated enthusiastically in the event.

