

Shri NJ Yasaswy Memorial Blood Donation Camp at IUR Campus - October 08, 2018

On the occasion of 7th death anniversary of Late Shri N.J. Yasaswy, Founder of ICFAI group, a blood donation camp was organized at IU Raipur Kumhari campus. This camp was organized in cooperation with Red Cross Blood Bank, Raipur and ICFAI University, Kumhari. Before the start of Blood Donation camp a bike rally was organized in the nearby areas of Kumhari in which students and faculty members participated, the students and faculty members enthusiastically participated and donated blood voluntarily. About 33 units of blood was collected by the technicians of Red Cross Blood Bank, Raipur. On this auspicious occasion The Vice Chancellor (In-charge) of The ICFAI University Raipur, Dr. L.S. Nigam motivated the students and staff members for this noble cause. Registrar (In-charge) Mr. G.V.V.J Rao coordinated the rally and Mr. Vinay Peethambaran and Dr. Jayant Isaac coordinated the overall event. The function was a big success, all the staff members were present during the event.
